

Scaling up maternal & newborn health innovations in Ethiopia

To successfully scale up the Community Based Newborn Care (CBNC) package across Ethiopia, different stakeholder groups had defined responsibilities. Strong policy commitment and a workforce of frontline health workers facilitated scale up, whilst barriers were posed by the weak health system and challenges of changing behaviour.

Implementing Partners

National Governments

Donors

TIMING

LEADERSHIP

INFORMATION EXCHANGE

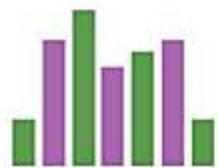

COLLABORATION

COORDINATION

COORDINATION

EVIDENCE

SCALABILITY

INNOVATION

BROKERING RELATIONSHIPS

PARTNERSHIPS

ENABLERS

Strong Policy Commitment
Health Extension Workers

Health System Strength
Community Behaviour

BARRIERS